-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Claims 3, 6 – 19, 22 – 28, 30 – 57 and 59 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 8-1-05.

Applicant's election with traverse of the Restriction Requirement in the reply filed on 8-1-05 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims are related. This is not found persuasive because the specification can not be read into the claims and the claims as recited are not related and that receiving is distinct from issuing, which as stated by the Applicant would require two different entities.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Art Unit: 3625

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 20, 21 and 58 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 - 36 of U.S. Patent No. 6,658,415 B1. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims address an authority that provides approval for selecting and associating an item or content.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 4 – 5, 20, 21, 29 and 58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Chow (US 6,850,899 B1).

Regarding claim 1 and related claim 58, Chow teaches a method for electronic shopping, comprising: receiving an instruction to associate an item with an electronic shopping cart; and in response to the instruction, determining that the item is not allowed to be associated with the electronic shopping cart (see at least Abstract, Col 2, lines 42 – 45 and Col 4, lines 4 – 12).

Regarding claim 2, Chow teaches a method, wherein the determination is based on rules (Abstract).

Regarding claim 4, Chow teaches a method according, wherein the rules are based at least in part on a price of the item (Col 4, lines 7 – 8).

Regarding claim 5, Chow teaches a method, wherein the rules comprise a rule specifying that a price of all items in the shopping cart may not exceed a specified total price (Col 4, lines 8 – 10).

Regarding claim 20, Chow teaches a method, wherein the instruction is received from a consumer, and wherein the determining step comprises: determining whether approval of the association has been received from at least one of: a spouse of the consumer, a parent of the consumer; a law enforcement agency; a government entity; a legal guardian; an account holder; a credit card account holder; a co-signer on a credit card; a service bureau; a credit card company; a designated third party; a merchant; and an intelligent software agent (Col 4, lines 4 - 12).

Regarding claim 21, Chow teaches a method, wherein the step of determining whether approval of the association has been received is not performed for all items (Col 8 – 10).

Art Unit: 3625

Regarding claim 29, Chow teaches a method, wherein the item comprises at least one of merchandise, stocks, bonds, services and knowledge (Col 4, lines 4 – 9)
